

I do not wish to see the Do Not Call legislation weakened, I finally feel that I'm free of those annoying telemarketers. To allow those firms to once again call people at will is wrong, my privacy should be protected unless I give explicit permission to have my name removed from the list.